Contact the company directly to check your hours and availability. We went to Sonny's because we love barbecues. We're from a different state, so we wanted to try it here. Our waiter was fun, service was quick. We're bbq friends and we've tried it all over the country. This was very passable and reasonably... priced into it. We ate at 3:00. The meat was good, but may have been a little fresher a few hours earlier. They have 4 sauces to choose from, but as someone who loves basic-tasted sauce, they were a little more complicated than I liked. The best surprise of the day was the quality of the pages. You have your choice, and unlike most barbecue houses, these were all really good. Good barbecue trees. Good Mac salad (which is not good in most places) and very tolerable slaw. We left full throttly and happy. Not the best I've ever had, but above such conventional BBQ chains you can see everywhere.
